PENROD'S . . THE PLACE TO DINE!

FEATURE Story by Ima E. Terr, Investigative Eater

Well, readers and eaters, drinkers and thinkers, your undercover digestive reporter is here to reveal that there is a man behind your menu. Penrod is his name—Bob Penrod—and if you aren't having a good time and a great meal, he wants to know why.

"Our goal is that you will walk out of our restaurant feeling like you mattered to us," says the founding father of the Penrod's chain which now includes restaurants at two Atlanta locations; Akers Mill and Northlake, as well as offspring in Birmingham, Ala., and Tampa and Clearwater, Fla.

Penrod opened his first restaurant at the Atlanta Northlake location in 1977 after cutting his teeth under the golden arches of McDonald's. Penrod had worked his way up from the janitor's closet to owner of 16 McDonald's franchises between 1966 and 1976 when he sold out in order to start his own dining dynasty.

"I learned the business from the master, Ray Kroc, founder of McDonald's, but I decided I wanted my own quality, full-service restaurant where I could stand at the door, greet the customers and be the host," Penrod explains. "It took a while to get the menu settled and for a while there we were the hottest disco in the South but that wasn't what I wanted to be. I wanted to be a great place to meet people and an even better place to eat.

After trying six or seven menu variations, Penrod came up with a version that outplayed disco fever. His menu won the National Restaurant Association's Silver Plate award in 1979 and came back and captured the prized Gold Plate in 1980. Penrod guarantees you that his menu shall return.

"We strive for quality in everything we do and we use only the best products," says the head cook and chairman of the grill.

Bob Penrod isn't the only restaurant raconteur who thinks his place is tops. Listen to what the critics say about Penrod's fare:

"The salads were excellent . . . my prime rib was tender and flavorful . . . The decor is beautiful." The Clearwater Sun.

"The food was good, the service excellent and the atmosphere much warmer than its counterparts." The Tampa Bay Business Weekly.

"If you're interested in drinks before dinner, you've come to the right place. Picking from the menu is no snap . . . the reader is assailed with a virtual barrage of possibilities ranging from sandwiches to quiche to steak to Eggs Benedict." The Birmingham Post-Herald

"Penrod's is a class act" The Cobb Extra of the Atlanta Journal and Constitution.

These accolades aren't accidental. Bob Penrod is a student of the restaurant business and he serves only honor rolls.

"A restaurant should offer variety, warmth, color and lots of plants as well as special touches like mint and orange slices in the tea and special events for our regular customers."

Those events include occasional fashion shows and holiday specials, Wednesday night Mexican Extravaganzas, "Weekend" brunches, nightly Happy Hours and special CLOUT CARD memberships that entitle customers to a cocktail on the house each day of the week, no-wait seating and champagne for $2.95 per bottle between 11-3 p.m. with Brunch. (Inquire at the hostess stand if you agree that this CLOUT has a silver lining.)

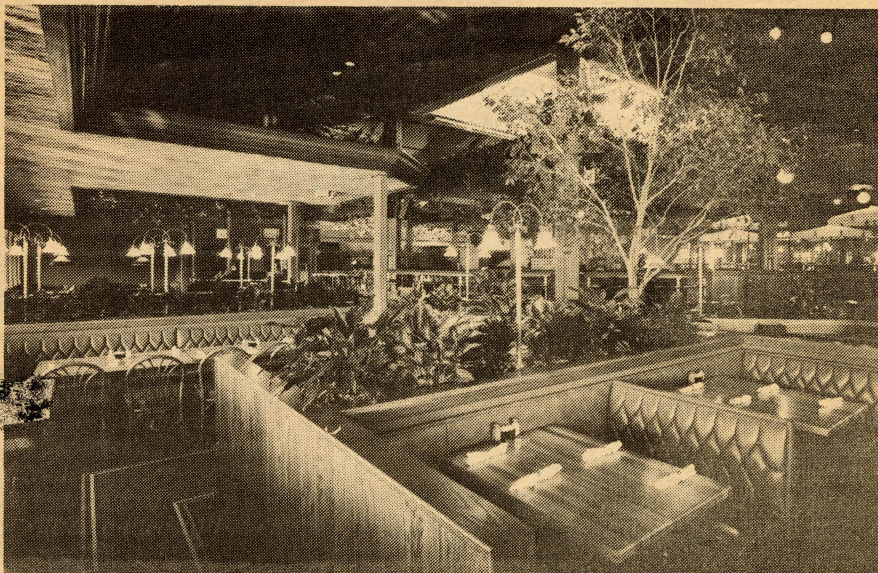

Penrod's menu is aimed at appetites of every size and tastes of every flavor. The steak soup was once named Atlanta's best and the Texas style chili took the "Best of Bowl" award in Atlanta's Budweiser Chili Cook Off. The nachos are nacho-urally stupendous and our menu selection will boggle your mind!

Even real men can't resist Penrod's quiche collection, disproving the theory that a quiche is just a quiche and the sandwich selection makes hamburger of the competition. If you are into greenery, Penrod says, "Lettuce show you our salads."

Entrees come stripped, on a stick, broiled, marinated, sliced, diced primed and mignoned and you can wash it down with beer, wine or any number of cocktail concoctions.

Good conversation comes with every meal at no extra charge and the dance floor isn't just a clearing in the glade of stained glass, plants, woodwork and brass. The idea, Penrod says, is to eat and enjoy, meet and mingle.

"I learn something new in this business every day and that's the way I want to keep it," says the man behind your menu. "As long as we're still green, we'll keep growing."

Slendro Massager is an all-purpose machine for use on any overnight part. How the machine works on thigh.

Abdomen massage is another use. Slendro Massager is popular because women can operate it by themselves, conveniently in any one spot.

Left leg area gets a workout. Most women who don't only use the Slendro Massager also use it for face.

MODERN LIVING

MACHINES ATTACK THE SOLID FLESH

Factory methods for reducing

These pictures were not taken in the torture chamber of a medieval dungeon. They were taken in one of the 200 MacLevy "slenderizing salons" in the U. S. Here massive machines of steel, heavy coil springs and wooden rollers now replace masseuse's hands in rubbing the fat from lazy female bodies.

To demonstrate these reducing machines LIFE picked pretty Model Pat Ogden, who is placidly letting herself be electrically rolled in the Slendro Massager at left. With many other New York models, Pat goes to a salon occasionally to keep her figure trim.

Along with Pat, LIFE sent its fittest researcher to play guinea pig for fat LIFE readers. She found the machines pleasant and generally painless. "The Slendro Massager made her feel 'like a piece of dough being rolled,' but like a biscuit she felt no pain. 'This is like a silent movie where you see yourself being spanked and await with dread the stinging pain which never arrives,' she reported.

Of the other machines she said, "The Reoler Massager (below) makes you think that at last you're going to find out what it's like to ride a horse. Instead the friction on your seat soon makes you think you've ridden through a whole rodeo. The Back Ring Roller (top of next page) makes you conscious of looking like a Salem witch in the stocks.

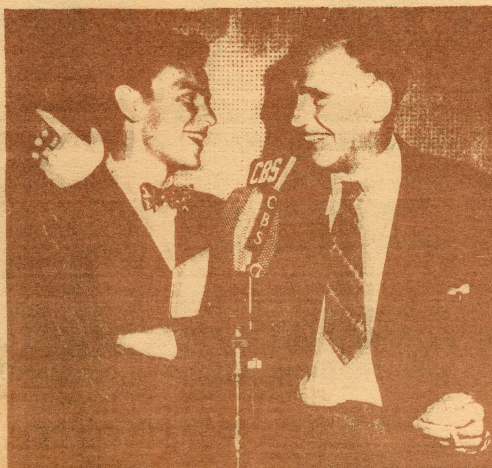

The other machines that roll bulging stomachs, thighs, calves and ankles are also painless enough to allow reading, knitting, lunching or dozing. They made LIFE's reporter feel "like a slowly deflating balloon."

Her final comment: "As you look around the torture room and see the fat ladies standing in rows, you're amazed at their complacent contentment. They are all getting thin without an effort. They all still look as if they were unwedding chocolates."

Dates Galore for Toothsome Lenore

There's no known defense against Lenore's dazzling smile. For she's found that Pebecco cleans teeth better. That it's super-fine—doesn't wash right away when you start to brush, stays on the job and polishes!

The reason is Pebecco Tooth Powder's special combination of polishing agents. Micro-fine, non-abrasive—Pebecco clings to your teeth while you brush. Gives teeth a bright new sparkle. Tastes fresh as mint. Try it!

LETTER FROM THE PUBLISHER

It is not enough in this day and age to open your doors, print a menu, put food on the table, and call yourself a restaurant. There has to be some accountability, some assurance of value. The most important element in our operation is quality whether it is our food, liquor, or service, if the value is there then we haven't let you down.

We have put a lot of time and money into our operations. Whether it's stained glass or a cut of beef, we believe in only using the best. But these are inanimate objects, it's our people that bring them to life. I really believe warmth is a human element, it cannot be manufactured. And this is where you come in as a customer. We are here to serve. We need your comments in order to be effective. If something isn't right, we'd like to hear about it. If you're happy we'd like to hear about that also. Our goal is that you will walk out of our restaurant feeling like you mattered.

I would like to thank you for your suggestions and continuing patronage.

Sincerely,
Bob Penrod
